Chynna Doll

Chynna Doll

Hi everyone, my name is Chynna named after the famous Chynna Phillips of the Wilson Phillips band. I am a 27 year old mama wolf, in the running to become the next Miss Jetset 2021. Why do I want to model for Miss Jetset? To be a positive influence to women and girls around the world, and to be a voice and advocate for women in domestic violence situations. I started modeling at the age of 22 after I had my baby boy. I grew up in triticities, Washington and have resided in the beautiful Wenatchee valley for the last 5 years or so. I have traveled all over the Pacific Northwest as an ex athlete playing soccer for 16 years of my life, it has taught me a great deal about myself as a person. All of my adulthood I have faced challenges beyond my maturity and have persevered. Modeling gives me a joy that reaches down into my heart and brings out a light in me sometimes I forget is there. As a beauty, fitness, woman influencer it would be an honor to be the face of glitz magazine. I have always wanted to be on the cover of Rolling Stones, or women's magazine! Cheers!

Jivy Jaymie isn't found solo for a singular moment, most days. The fiery thirty year old is accompanied by her constant companion Frankenstein whether she's at work, home, the grocery store, or a midwest modeling shoot! But, why the constant compani-occasion?

Frank is a registered service animal with the U.S. Service Animals agency, and has been trained to offer emotional support services to his owner. Jaymie suffers from Post-traumatic stress disorder, Panic disorder, Generalized anxiety disorder, and Social anxiety disorder. Frank offers constant support for an ever-growing trend in America, anxiety!

Jaymie's anxieties, though, significantly surpass common worries that an individual faces. Her symptoms go far beyond the anxious feelings that one might feel before taking a test, or starting a new job. "My symptoms are debilitating, but they do not define me. I have goals to work toward each and everyday, and one day I hope to be able to assist others in overcoming the disorders that challenge me each and every day of my life."

Heart palpitations, rapid heart rate, chest pain, uncontrollable body trembling, memory loss, fainting, feeling detached, fear of losing control, and fear of dying are common symptoms Jaymie experiences during recurrent panic attacks. "My hope is that one day I no longer have to experience these unimaginably painful symptoms." The red-hot chicster switched careers in recent years due to her crippling anxieties, and self-wellness goals.

This retired art teacher uses modeling not only as a creative outlet, but as a coping mechanism for some of the guilt & shame that can be associated with her constant anxieties. "I feel a confidence in front of the camera that I don't normally get to feel. Having Frank with me at all times provides me with confidence and with security that I don't normally get to feel. I wouldn't truly be living otherwise." Frank is indefinitely this glitz-glam girl's hero, & the ginger pair is passionate about the fashion-photography world—together!

Raven Sky is a 31 year old model from Savannah, Ga. Raven started modeling for fun when she was 16 years old with her own camera and for a local car club. At 22 years old Raven experienced a very traumatic event in her life from domestic abuse that put her in ICU. After following orders from healthcare professionals she started modeling again to help her express herself the most comfortable way she knew. In doing this she not only regained her self esteem but also felt a new power and feeling of being in control. Raven Sky now uses her modeling to help empower other women of all sizes and ages to show no matter what they are beautiful and strong. Raven Sky wishes to make a career out of modeling and also to become a voice and therapist to anyone who has experienced domestic abuse. Follow her on Instagram and enjoy the works that she creates!

Smith

My name is Lauryn Smith, I'm 21 years old, and live in Memphis, TN. My birthday is in August and this year I'll be celebrating my 22nd birthday while in hopes of graduating in the same month. If not, I'll graduate in December with a degree in Criminal Justice. I started modeling at a young age and fell off due to my instructor passing away due to unknown circumstances. As the years went on I kept hearing "you should be a model" or "you need to model because you have the looks and the body." Me being me I didn't take it into consideration because I was too busy trying to figure out who I was as a person. While attending Austin Peay in 2017, I would look at the girls and guys who was in this modeling group called Confident Couture and would sit there and think that should be me up there but I was too nervous and insecure about my looks. Finally, in the summer of 2020 I decided to try modeling out again. I wanted to become a ig model or a influencer so I decided to post pictures in hopes of gaining recognition. With a little help from a close friend I was able to gain recognition through a fashion show I did in last November plus I gained a new family within Aries Photography. As the years goes on I hope to gain more confidence or even become a role model for young girls and teens. While juggling with modeling I also have my own organization to help support victims of assault. Hear Our Story is to help uplift victims and shed a light on the things that are not okay and what us women and men went through. You can find us on Facebook at @HearourStory1

Mandi Genord

Mandi Genord was born in to the dance studio life, as her mother has been an owner for 24 years in Wisconsin.

She began competing at age 2 with her sister Annie, to a jazz duet from Spongebob. From that moment she knew she loved the stage, and has continued to dance competitively until 2020. In 2018 she was crowned Miss Wisconsin Outstanding Teen and a lyrical dance was used for her winning talent. Over the years she has been recognized as a platinum winning dancer, winning many scholarships, overall placements and titles, to include the 2020 National Legacy Dancer of the year.

Mandi is a freshman at the University of Alabama, studying for a double majoring in political science and dance.

I am a professional published model of Memphis TN. I have loved modeling since age 13 years old. I began my Modeling career as a model of Memphis TN in the year of 2015, and was later assigned to an agency called Work Of Art Agency of Memphis TN for my talent. I have also done many fashion shows in the local areas of Memphis and even parts of Mississippi, as well as out of town shows. I have traveled to many cities such as ATL, New York, Kansas City, New Orleans as well as Chicago. Modeling isn't something I can just give up on; it's my passion, not only I love what I do, I live it every day of my life. My idols always have been Tyra Banks & Naomi Campbell. Seeing them on the runway always motivated me to give it my best no matter what. In 2019 and in 2020 I was nominated for The SCM Awards for Model OTY by Jay Shield of Memphis TN. I was also nominated for Hood Idol Magazine Model OTY in Moss Point Ms. And received a trophy for my hard work. Modeling is everything to me! As a model of Memphis TN, I strive for the best I can be not only as a model, but as a mother of five beautiful children, a wife, and as a grandmother of two. In the fashion industry I have done TV, commercial, videos, lingerie, nude, and body art. I was even published in many magazines, such as Xposure, Erotica, Dime, XOXO, Through The Lens, Slay Queenz, Hood Idol, and Fascic Magazine for my talent as a model, and also on Roku for Battle Of The Strut which is produced by Kimberly Young of Kansas City, and been interviewed on the radio of 92.7fm on The Chris Grindhard Show. As a 5'2 inch model I continue to push towards success. I love how God created me. He created me to be able to stay focused, and motivated, as well as having confidence in myself. I love being me, different how God created me to be. I am your favorite Memphis Model, The Memphis Slayer

Amanda is an outstanding model just starting out. Fun to work with and a complete free spirit. She has overcome her fears of being in front of the camera, and proving that if you set your mind to something you can accomplish anything! This has been a huge challenge for her, along with a huge success with stepping out of the box when in front of the camera. Although she isn't very well known she is looking forward to seeing what this new adventure has in store for her. She set out with only one goal in mind, and that is to set a better future for our upcoming generations. With showing that no matter what, you can become anything you want to be!
