Hi I'm Evelyn Jones. I'm a California girl stuck in an Arkansas world! I have modeled for two short years but, I love it with a passion! Just simply because I can be myself! I have two beautiful sons. In my free time I love to create art and make people smile. My dream to be a model came at an early age and I never thought I would be successful but, I keep pushing to do my best and try! It's a passion I will never lose! This shoot is so special to me and the two beautiful mothers that helped create this wonderful set! Keshia (the photographer) has a special way at envisioning concepts. A mother herself and hard worker at everything she does. She made this shoot so free forming and easy for me! Then there is Jessie (Hair and make up artist) with her mad makeup skills that made this whole shoot work out! Without her joining and Keshia's vision this set wouldn't have happened! We are very proud the way this shoot turned out we have been working on this concept for a year and we finally got to do it and make it happen! There's a lot more to come from us so keep your eyes open! I would like to again Thank Keshia White (Photographer) and Jessie Nealy (Hair and make up artist) for making this all come together!

Where do I start. Well first off my name is Jennifer better and I'm a native of Edmond Oklahoma. I have my bachelors in business administration, as well as hold a barber license. However, my dream is to make modeling a full-time career.

I aspire to be the girl on the cover of all the magazines. To be the beautiful woman I always saw the covers of my mothers magazines. The women I grew up ogling over. And there's no better time to make that happen the now.

At a very young age I knew I wanted to be the girl I saw in my mothers magazines. I wanted to be in the spotlight, wear the fancy clothes, and just be as beautiful as those women.

By 16 I visited small modeling agency located here in Oklahoma and I was told I would never be a runway model due to my height of 5'6, so I kind of placed it to the side after I got in a car wreck yet knew that one day no matter how long the wait I would make my dreams come true.

During my early 20's began to do promotional modeling and have continued to further pursue other endeavors within the modeling industry. I have delved into my full career, touching base with each genre and and pushing my limits within my shoots.

I have been published in a small calendar shot here in Oklahoma and continue to strive for more publications in my future.

With that said I envision my dreams to be my reality. I will be that "it" girl I knew I always wanted to be.

It takes perseverance and patience to make Succes. Dedication and motivation to make it happen.

The one thing i want most in the world is for people to just know my name. Hear my name and know who i am, what i look like. I've been obsessed with cameras since the age of about 12. When i was 13, i got offered a spot in a model agency. It was to expensive for my mom, she told me to finish school before i did anything like that. Turns out school helped me become the model i am today, i had a one year internship with a lovely photographer for school credit. She had me stand in front of the camera, in front of the backdrop, with all of her lights facing me. And she had me pose, and at first it was fun but then it became more. Something I craved doing, i took so much time staring at my pictures and doing my make up perfectly, because I noticed the little things in the photos that just didn't make the picture perfect. I wanted to take the perfect picture. I want a photo to capture exactly how i feel, and who i am. I have been modeling every day of my life since age 16 thanks to that internship, because i am determined to make that photo happen. Years of modeling has left me feeling like a whole new person. And i want to show the world my changes by literally showing the world my changes. Does that make sense? I hope so, i just spoke from the heart.
