Kaylee

Kaylee has lived her life in Indiana. She's in the middle of her junior year in school. She's made honor roll since her sophomore year. She tries her hardest to accomplish any task thrown her way. She puts everyone else before herself and doesn't settle until everyone is beyond happy. Like every other person, she has her struggles and weaknesses. She can be very emotional at times, as well as frustrated. She tries to multitask instead of taking things one step at a time. She learns from her mistakes and thinks of ways to become greater and smarter. Her ability to constantly help people is what makes her so unique. There has never been a day where she has not helped anyone. Her future plans are simple. Once she has graduated high school she plans on going to tech school to study in the human services field. Growing up she's always lived by one phrase "you are what you make yourself out to be." Through every obstacle she's faced with family, school, and work; she has always found a way to better herself. Kaylee, herself knows she is not perfect. She's learned that she's far from it just like everyone else, but she is human and every mistake she's made has made her better than before. She's quiet, funny, smart, adventurous, caring, and a hard worker. She's worked so hard to be where she is now. Every failure she has faced has taught her that she can't always succeed, but trying again is her way at succeeding at not giving up. Kaylee is the oldest out of her 3 siblings. She's got a brother who's 14 and two sisters who are 4 and 11 years old. They are her world. Everything she does, she does to help them. She's always doing something outdoors. She enjoys camping, hiking, a little fishing, and taking photos of anything that's in her way. She has a deep passion for photography. Kaylee's the type of person who grew up by herself. She didn't have a lot of friends and spent a lot of time to herself. She had a hard time opening up to people when times are hard. You could have the worst day possible, but she'll always know a way to make you smile. Kaylee never takes anything for granted. She loves her life and everyone in it. She wants to send a very special thank you to Don Jones for all the work he's put into her!

I am a mature model from Cornwall, UK and have been modelling for over 30 years plus ever since I won a Runway contest at the age of 10 and thought ' This is FUN!'

Fast forward to my 20's and 30's where I had a successful modelling career as well as running an Award Winning National Model Agency. Hard work - very! But I enjoyed it.

Retired at 40 due to a bad dose of Glandular Fever. Relunched at 57 and now 67 and still loving modelling! Age has no barrier!

Achievements: Modelling is my passion. Have been published internationally and featured on covers. Have modelled everything from promoting Rolls Royce cars to thermal undies! I celebrated my Sapphire Wedding Anniversary this year.

LOVE animals and have a little rescue doggie called Venus, who sometimes goes on shoots with me.

Personal challenge is to keep modelling as long as I can and to be a cover girl as much as I can lol x
