Hi, I call Paulina, I made my biggest dream come true - to become a model and actress. I have been for 2 years now and so far there is no indication that I will quit. I appeared on Instagram about a year ago as a model and actress. In the photo session and as in the recordings of music videos and series / movies I appeared not every later. And now you will probably ask you a question, i.e. when? I'm already telling you about 8 months ago. It was the best decision of my life and a lot of adventures as I gaining experience in modeling and as well as in acting. But I did not appear before the outdoor session ... that is when I started my first outdoor photo session. I hope you read this and you are not afraid to make your dreams come true
