About Jenny...

Jenny Z. Montiel was born in El Salvador in 1974. After leaving war torn El Salvador in 1982 with her parents she grew up in sunny California. Always a rebel without a cause Jenny left her home at age sixteen. She continued to go to school while working a fulltime job. Initially, couch surfing with friends and then finally securing a little studio apartment of her own. While going through school she took odd jobs as cashier, receptionist, elementary school program TA, and administrative assistant moving up the corporate ladder she has been the recipient of National Association of Professional Women Outstanding Excellence & Dedication to Her Profession And The Achievement of Women Award and is is now Operations Manager for her current employer, is a Public Notary Signing Agent and though she considered modeling at a young age she finally checked it of her list at age 47!

Jenny enjoys volunteering specially with kids and did so for many years at her local Boys and Girls Club. Service to others has always brought a high level of satisfaction and she does as much as time allows. In her down time you can find her at the beach or the gym. Most of all Jenny enjoys time with her family. She has recently become a grandmother and is enjoying her role to the fullest. She hopes to continue to model and serve her community as much as possible. Her goal is to travel to as many countries as she can in the next decade.

Hi my names Jessica I'm 12 years old and when we were in lockdown I really got into taking photos. I'm a dancer so I love to take dance photos out doors. I also like to take just regular photos of my self and edit them.

Landon Ryder Shields

My name is Landon and I'm 12 years old with BIG dance dreams. I want to be a professional dancer and be recognized by my community as someone that is inspiring and helpful to others. I especially would like to inspire boys to dance too. I enjoy all types of dance, and my favorites are ballet and contemporary. My background training started as a Jr. Olympic Elite Gymnast and I had great success. However, in winter of 2019 I realized I wanted to try dance. I started with a rec class and fell in love with the stage and modeling. It's a challenge to be the only boy sometimes and can feel very lonely. I'm hoping that my achievements I've made in such a small amount of time can help and encourage other boys to dance with me. I'm so happy to be a part of my community's ballet company Charlotte City Ballet and also be on a pre-professional travel team with Bridge Dance Arts. I get to enjoy performing on stage with beautiful choreography from talented teachers for my solo and group dancing with my best friends. I would say my greatest accomplishment this far was not only achieving great results with my performances and competitions being recognized as a Title winner or outstanding dancer, but rather meeting instructors and new people that introduce me to what is possible and what I can become if I keep dreaming BIG. I love hearing the stories of how people became professionals in the dance world and I really hope I can join them one day on the stage in the big cities!
